CONSTITUTION

OF THE

STATE OF NEW YORK

IN SENATE

January 1st 1811

REPORT

COMMISSIONERS OF THE LAND OFFICE

IN ANSWER TO A RESOLUTION PASSED BY THE SENATE

ON THE 17TH MARCH 1810

AND BY THE ASSEMBLY

ON THE 19TH APRIL 1810

AND BY THE SENATE

ON THE 17TH MAY 1810

ADVERTISEMENT.

THE Distresses which the Families of many deceased Clergymen unhappily labour under, when by the Death of Husband and Father they are deprived of that Income, which was their only, and perhaps but a bare Support, is a Case which cannot but affect every humane and benevolent Breast: And as there is no sufficient Provision made by the Publick for Distresses of this Nature (which is a Thing much to be wished) so to supply in some Measure this Defect within the Deanries of Ewell and Southwark, many of the Clergy of those Deanries, with the entire Approbation of their worthy Diocesan, did, in 1763, form themselves into a Society, and enter into a voluntary annual Subscription for the Relief of such Widows, and Orphans of Clergymen, in those Deanries, as then were, or hereafter might be, left in indigent and necessitous Circumstances.

With this View, and to this End, they formed and established certain Rules and Constitutions, for their Direction in the Management of the Fund arising from their own Subscriptions, and from such Subscriptions and Donations as they might be favoured with from other charitable, well disposed Persons. Which Rules, revised and corrected in such Instances, as the Experience of some Years hath represented as capable of Amendment, are hereby submitted to the Notice of all who may be inclined to patronize this Institution.

The Design of this Society is, to administer such Relief to the Distresses above-mentioned, as the Necessities of the several Cases

Cases shall require, and their Fund enable them to give; by allowing Annual Pensions to the Widows; by contributing to the Maintenance and Education of the Children till of fit Age to be put out Apprentices; by assisting in putting them out when fit; and by an annual Allowance toward the Support of such as are disabled by any Infirmary from getting an honest Livelihood; and if, after answering these Purposes, the Fund should be found equal to more extensive Distributions, they will be applied to the Wants of the necessitous living Clergy, and their Children, in such Proportion as the Urgency of their Circumstances may require.—These are the Designs of the Society, and the Ends proposed to be served by the Fund established: And it is hoped that Designs so laudable, and Ends so useful, will not want a suitable Encouragement.

RULES, &c.

1. THAT the Lord Bishop of Winchester, for the Time being, shall be President, and the Archdeacon and Commissary of Surrey, for the Time being, the Vice-Presidents of this Society; with a Power to either of them to summon a general Meeting of all the Members, on any Occasion, which may seem to them to require such Meeting.

2. That all Benefactors, whether Laity, or Clergy, by a Subscription of One Guinea, or more, annually, or by a Donation of Twenty Guineas, shall be Members of this Society.

3. That

3. That at the annual Visitations of the Bishop, which shall be called General Meetings, Five or more of the Members shall hold a Board to receive the Petitions of Widows and Orphans; and to transact any other necessary Business that cannot conveniently be postponed.

4. That any Question which may arise at any Meeting held for the Purpose of transacting the Business of this Institution, shall be determined by the Majority of the Members present at such Meeting.

5. That besides the Bishop's and Arch-Deacon's Visitations, a Meeting shall be held every Year on the last Thursday in June, to be called THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING, at such Place as shall be agreed upon by the Majority of Members present, at every preceding ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING; which said Meeting shall not be effectual to the Dispatch of Business unless consisting of seven Members.

6. That at this ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING, the Treasurer's Accounts for the preceding Year shall be audited; the annual Subscriptions paid to him by the Stewards of the several Districts; the Money arising from the Subscriptions and Benefactions distributed to such Objects, and in such Proportions, as shall be then agreed on; the Officers chosen for the ensuing Year.

7. That whatever Subscriptions have been omitted to be paid at the Bishop's Visitation, or at the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING, or at the ensuing Visitation of the Arch-deacon, shall be collected by the Stewards of the several Districts, wherein such Omision is found, and paid by them to the Treasurer.

8. That if any Distress shall arise between the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS, which requires immediate Relief; the Steward or Stewards of the District, in which such Distress happens, may summon a Committee of Five of the Members, who, having taken the Case

Case into Consideration, may order for the present Relief any Sum, not exceeding Ten Pounds, by Direction to the Treasurer under their Hands.

9. That a Book or Books shall be provided by the Treasurer out of the public Stock; in which shall be inserted, the Rules and Constitutions of this Society, the Names of the Subscribers, with the annual Subscriptions or Donations made to the Fund, and the Receipts and Disbursements of the Treasurer; together with the Proceedings of this Society; which shall always be produced at the ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

10. That whosoever is disposed to make any Benefaction or Donation to the Fund under the Management of this Society, shall make it to the Treasurer, or one of the Stewards.

11. That the Business of the Treasurer is, to collect and receive Subscriptions and Donations; to distribute the Money arising from them them in such Sums, and at such Times, as shall be directed, under the Hands of Seven or more Members, at an annual General Meeting; or on any such extraordinary Occasion as that specified in Con. 8th; and to give timely Notice of any General Meeting that is appointed, by sending circular Letters to the several Stewards.

12. That the Business of the Stewards is, to collect the Subscriptions in their several Districts, and pay them into the Hands of the Treasurer; to summon the Members in their Districts, according to the Notice given them by the Treasurer; and to use their utmost Endeavours to promote the good Purposes of this charitable Institution.

13. That if the Treasurer, or any of the Stewards, shall die, or refuse to act, the Majority of the Members may elect others at the next General Meeting.

14. That the Widows and Orphans of such Clergy as die possessed of some ecclesiastical

Benefice or Curacy, within the aforesaid Deanries, as well Peculiars as others, shall ever be considered as the primary Objects of this Charity; but that such Widows shall be relieved no longer than while they continue Widows, or such Orphans than while they continue unmarried; but in Case any Widow or Orphan shall marry, and after such Marriage become Widows, though not of Clergy, and again be reduced to that State of Necessity which would, in the first Instance, have recommended them to Relief from this Charity, it shall be allowable to receive their Petitions as before, and to afford them such Relief, as, after due Attention had to the Necessities of the primary Objects, the Fund of the Society may be equal to.

15. That no Orphan, being upwards of Sixteen Years of Age, and who has never been married, shall be relieved with an annual Pension, except such as are put out Apprentices, and stand in Need of further Assistance; or such as are disabled by some Infirmary from getting an honest Livelihood.

16. That

16. That no living Clergyman be relieved by this Society, unless residing in one of the Deanries at the Time of his receiving such Relief.

17. That no Person be relieved without a Petition, setting forth the Benefice or Curacy which the Husband or Father of the Petitioner died possessed of; and the Age and Circumstances of the Widow or Orphan: And that no Petition be received without a Certificate under the Hand of the Minister of the Parish where the Petitioner dwells, or (in Case that the Petition be that of the Minister of the Parish himself, or that the Signature of the Minister of the Parish cannot conveniently be had) that of some other neighbouring Minister, and of one or more Subscribers, attesting the Truth of the Petition; and that the Petitioner is a Member of the Church of ENGLAND, of sober Life and Conversation; which Petitions and Certificates are to be renewed every Year.

18. That

18. That the Member who presents the Petition of any Object, shall receive the Pension granted, give a Receipt to the Treasurer, and pay the Money to the Petitioner, whose Receipt shall be produced at the next Annual General Meeting.

19. That the Treasurer shall provide, out of the public Stock, a Number of printed blank Petitions, Certificates, and Receipts, to be delivered in small Quantities to the several Stewards, and Copies of these Rules to be distributed to every Member.

20. The above Rules and Constitutions to be strictly adhered to; and no Alteration to be made therein at any other Meeting but at the Annual General Meeting, and that after Notice being first given by the Treasurer of such intended Alteration, to the several Stewards,

OFFI-
